MOLLOY UNIVERSITY

Course Title: Content Creation and Communication with Canva

Course Number: EDU 5900

Instructor: Kristina A. Holzweiss

Email: KHolzweiss@molloy.edu

Course Description

With Canva, you won't need a degree in graphic design to create content to support student learning and to communicate with your colleagues. Participants will learn how graphic design is an "on-ramp" for reluctant writers and speakers. You will learn about the different templates offered by Canva, how to modify them, and how to create teaching resources from scratch. No technology, art, or graphic design experience is necessary for this beginner course which has been designed to assist teachers of all grade levels and subject areas. Through this course, participants will learn how to create resources to enhance their teaching and design simple projects for their students.

This course will be offered online through Canvas, the Molloy College online course system. You will need to become familiar with Canvas.

Grading

Students are expected to participate by responding to the instructor and classmates with thoughtful, professional responses. You are encouraged to share resources and ask questions.
